

Job Description: Video Editor

Origin's Video Editor is responsible for editing innovative, on-brief videos for clients. The Video Editor works with the Director and/or Writer to help inform the treatment from a post perspective and determines any external resources (graphics/sound/colour etc) required for the video. During the editing process, the Editor ensures the creation of a final product that is visually stunning and meets the objectives of the campaign.

Job Details

Job Title: Editor

Direct Report: Director, Video + Content

Position: Permanent, full-time, salaried

Salary Range: $60,000 to $68,000/year based on experience

Benefits

Vacation: 2 weeks paid per year, plus paid non-stat days between Dec. 25 and Jan. 1

Recreation: $500 recreation credit

Health: $500 health trust reimbursement program

Training: $500 per year in training (symposium, conferences, classes or other)

Whistler

201-1002 Lynham Road
Whistler, BC V0N 1B1
604-932-8482

Montréal

55 Mont-Royal Ouest #603
Montréal, QC H2T 2s6
514-842-5252

Qualifications

- Excellent technical skills and a command of all aspects of post-production including, editing, colour grading, compositing, green screen, format conversion, encoding, sound sweetening, sound design, compression, mastering and media management
- A broad aesthetic and diverse creative styles and an ability to bring to life a director's or writer's vision
- Expert knowledge of Premiere, Adobe After Effects, Davinci Resolve, Audition
- Experience with HD and RAW footage pipeline and digital formats including RED and DSLR.
- Experience in design, motion graphics and 3D animation (motion graphics experience)

Responsibilities

- Communicating with producers and directors to meet specific project goals
- Editing to include sound effects, dialogue, music and other elements
- Selecting shots suitable to the storyline which follow the defined project strategy
- Developing motion graphic effects
- Managing server + archiving all in-house client files
- Developing innovative post-production models for videos
- Sourcing music & sound effects
- Effectively assess project estimates regarding editing for producer
- Meticulously review all work for errors prior to turning in work for approval
- Be a collaborator and self-motivator who welcomes feedback and finds ways to remain engaged and motivated in their job.
- Contribute to Creative Department meetings, initiatives and inspiration
- Every member of the Origin team is expected to maintain a positive, enthusiastic and engaged attitude